We're Getting the Band Back Together

Empowering adults with physical disabilities through lifelong friendships and recreation

Dear friend,

We hope you enjoyed seeing a few of our favorite moments during our week. Yesterday we turned camp into a music festival with three stages of live music. The Camp Committee really outdid themselves planning this one. It's hard to believe this is our last full day at camp, we are low on sleep but full of memories. We have made new friendships and learned a little more about ourselves this week. Stop by our social media pages in the coming weeks to see even more photos and hear stories about Horizonpalooza. Watch for details on our Fall Weekend!
